

2008 REGIONAL ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT CONFERENCE

Sponsored by the Economic Development Administration's
Chicago and Philadelphia Regional Offices for EDA-funded Economic Development Districts,
University Centers, Revolving Loan Funds and Tribal Planning Grantees

Building Strong Regional Economies through Innovation and Competition

Mark Your Calendar!

May 12 – 14, 2008

Join a diverse group of economic development peers from 19 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico and the US Virgin Islands at this exciting and invigorating conference. Enrich your knowledge of prevailing tried and true economic development practices.

Network with your colleagues

Learn about the latest economic trends in your regions and the nation

Hear about critical program updates from EDA staff

Participate in stimulating RLF and CEDS training

Exchange ideas and solutions for building strong and viable economies

The conference sessions, themselves, are free of charge. There is a $225 special event fee that covers two breakfasts, one lunch and a special tour and dinner at the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame (including transportation to and from the Hall of Fame).*

May 12 - 14, 2008
Crowne Plaza Cleveland City Centre
Cleveland, OH

Registration will be available in early 2008

*The special event fee is optional. You may attend the conference sessions without paying this fee.

Questions?

Call 202.624.7806 (NADO Research Foundation) or visit www.nado.org/conferences/other.php?con_id=88

SEE YOU IN CLEVELAND!